Mrs. Claude S. Williams and Miss Charlotte Holmes presided over a charming bridge party and tea yesterday afternoon, given in the pleasant parlors of the former in the Sampson flats. The room was beautifully decorated with a profusion of roses and peonies, with a color scheme in yellow and white carried out in the dining room, with Japanese iris forming the effective centerpiece. Mrs. F. W. Little poured coffee and Mrs. P. J. Moran tea, assisted by the Misses Lucille Clark, Mary Halloran and Mercy W. Lewis. Ten tables of bridge were filled with players, with two dozen or more coming in for tea. The prize winners of the afternoon were Mrs. F. W. Little, Mrs. Will Brown, Mrs. C. A. Quigley, Mrs. J. J. Campbell, Mrs. Dix, Miss Mildred McMillan, Miss Edna Dunn, Miss Emma Quigley and Miss Daisy Savage.

Mrs. L. L. Terry extended her hospitality for the first time in her new home in Federal Heights yesterday afternoon, when, from 3 to 5, the handsome rooms were filled with the representative members of Salt Lake society. A stringed orchestra furnished music during the receiving hours, and the hostess was assisted by a number of her friends in receiving, and also in serving in the dining room, where tea was served.

Mrs. Fred Hornung and Mrs. J. M. Davis were the gracious hostesses at a prettily arranged bridge affair yesterday afternoon, when ten tables of the game were played, with others coming in for the tea which followed. Peonies in all shades and varieties graced the rooms and adorned the table, where Mrs. O. K. Lewis and Mrs. Frank Roush poured, assisted by the Misses Helen and Rose Evans and Hilda Greeson. The affair was the second in a series of social events over which Mrs. Hornung and Mrs. Davis have presided this week at the home of the former.

One of the prettiest luncheons of the season was the one given yesterday at the University club by Miss Fannie Bird complimentary to Miss Lulu D. Barr, whose marriage to Irving A. Bearce of Seattle will take place June 22. The table was laid in the private dining room of the club, and the details were fairly carried out in green and white. A cut glass bowl of white sweet peas and ferns standing on a mirror occupied the center of the round table, surrounded by sweet peas and ferns radiating from the center in the form of a star. The shape of two small white satin cushions tied together with green ribbon, bearing the monograms of the prospective bride and bridegroom, were given each guest, and a cluster of white sweet peas accompanied the place cards, which were painted in four-leaved clover and laid for eleven close friends of the bride-elect.

A pretty wedding reception was given last evening at the bride's home in Second avenue for Miss Theresa L. Burton and Frank R. Clark, who were married in the morning in the temple. A wealth of summer roses in red, pink and white, combined with sprays of English ivy and smilax, gracefully adorned the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Burton were assisted in receiving the guests by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Clark of Grantsville. Miss Victoria Reed served punch in the reception hall, and the Misses Ivy and Mary Burton, sisters of the bride, and Miss Florence Langford presided in the dining room, where the table was attractively decorated with red roses and wreaths of ivy and smilax. The bride, who was unattended, wore a charming lingerie gown and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Mr. Clark will leave soon for Mexico to take an important position, where Mrs. Clark will join him later.

A beautifully appointed dinner was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle at their pleasant home in First avenue, which was fragrant with June roses. Peonies formed the effective table decorations, and the place cards were exquisite little water color sketches of Egyptian scenes, secured by the hostess on her recent trip abroad. Cards and music followed in the evening, and a dozen friends enjoyed the affair.

Mrs. Elbridge L. Thomas will entertain with a bridge tea on the afternoon of Wednesday, June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Clark have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Preale and Otto R. Peters for Thursday evening, June 23, in St. Mark's cathedral, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. H. J. Schultz will entertain with a bridge tea on the afternoon of Tuesday, June 14.

Mrs. James B. Hughes will entertain the members of the Crystal Card club and a few other friends Friday afternoon, in compliment to Mrs. C. A. Quigley before she leaves Saturday for a trip abroad.

Mrs. Thomas J. Nipper and Mrs. James E. Beveridge have issued invitations for a parcel shower in honor of Miss Lois Taylor, to be given at the home of Mrs. Nipper, 1244 East South Temple street, Thursday afternoon, June 9.

The East Noble Grange club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. J. C. Fleury, 2610 South Ninth East street, Thursday afternoon. A cordial invitation is extended to all visiting sisters.

Mrs. Clarence E. Allen, president of the Utah Congress of Mothers, and Mrs. H. J. Fitzgerald, secretary, will leave this afternoon for Denver to attend the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations, which convene in that city from June 10 to June 16, inclusive. The meeting is to be of great importance, and a remarkably fine program has been prepared. The general topic to be considered is "The Welfare of the Child in Home, School and Nation." The convention will open Friday evening in the Woman's club house, and other important sessions will be held in the different churches. The social features will include a reception given by Governor and Mrs. Shafroth at their home Saturday afternoon. At reception will be given by Miss Wolcott Tuesday at her school, and a luncheon at the Country club Monday, June 13. The delegates will be entertained also with various trips around the city and the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Odell, Mrs. J. H. Richards and Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Kirkley returned Monday from an eastern trip of several weeks, accompanied by Miss Marie Odell, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odell, who has been attending Briarcliff Manor on the Hudson during the school year.

Mrs. T. D. Lewis and children will leave next week to spend the summer in Portland and the neighboring resorts, Seaside and Tokeland. Judge Lewis will join them later in the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kearns and daughter Helen left Monday for Park City for a stay of several days, going and coming by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Quigley will leave Saturday for New York and will sail June 25 on the Carmania for England and the continent. Miss Emma Quigley, who has been a guest in the Quigley home for the last year, and the young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Quigley, will accompany them as far as Chicago, to remain until their return in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Holman are in New York after an extended trip abroad, and are registered at the Manhattan hotel.

Mrs. C. J. Collins and children will leave Saturday to join Mr. Collins in Detroit, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. J. Lyon and Miss Bess Honnold of Seattle, having been visiting relatives and friends in Salt Lake for a few days, and continued on their eastern trip yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. Dare Woodruff are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son

Walker's June White Carnival

Wherein every article is as good or better than advertised

$2.50 and $3.00
Pumps for $1.85

White poplin ankle strap pumps, covered Cuban heels. During White Carnival week only.

$6.00 Oxfords
$3.95

For next week only, $3.95 buys any $5 to $6 women's white kid, canvas, suede, cravenette oxford or pump. High white shoes excluded.

Fact, not fancy, governs Walker's advertisements.

Each department head knows that all merchandise must be as good or better than advertised.

By way of illustration, these lingerie dresses: Though they were advertised at 10% to 50% discounts, many of them are shown in the window and in the department reduced thus: $45 to $19.75, $35 to $14.75, $20 $8.75—actual reductions ranging close to 60%.

This example is typical. Every article on sale is fresh from our own perfect stocks—each department contributes merchandise for which our customers at any other time would gladly pay full price.

The June White Carnival brings you this identical merchandise at 10% to 50% savings and more.

The Carnival of White Sale lasts the week. But we commence our early closing Saturday at 1 p. m., so shop early.

75c to $1.50
Embroideries 33c

To buy from 2 to 4 yards of embroidery for the ordinary price of one is a piece of good business made possible only by this wonderful Carnival of White.

About 3,500 yards in the lot—2,000 yards left of what was advertised Sunday, the rest being a fresh lot of flouncings, edgings and bands. Much the most remarkable value of the sale. Worth to $1.50 at 33c.

Up to $3.00
Embroideries 69c

Of the 12,000 yards advertised Sunday there is still splendid choosing in these beautiful embroideries, flouncings and shirt waist frontings. Wide assortment in designs and widths and lengths.
